From the Driver's Seat
David Thomas,
President

Greetings and happy holidays! So amazing to think another year is almost over. The older I get, the faster they go. Invariably, the holiday season brings reflective thoughts about the unequalled importance of family and friends. As a “well-aged” senior, I can testify to the truth of that.

A recent car magazine’s Porsche-related article contained this statement: anyone who buys a Porsche has instant friends! On its face, this is a humorous reference to the near universal appeal of Porsche cars, but in a deeper sense it describes our club and the real joy of befriending like-minded people who share the very special bond of owning a Porsche.

PCA membership was certainly enjoyable from the get-go, but where it really took off for me was when I started volunteering. For those who might dip a toe in that water, I heartily recommend our annual Concours as a great place to start. “No experience required” is the watchword for most roles, and for judging there will be training opportunities. And it’s very exciting that our awesome vice president Joe Swanson is chairing the 2026 Concours. Mark your calendars for Saturday, May 16th!

Another big event on the way is our annual general meeting and banquet, coming on January 24th. Our incredible activities chair Valerie Gillespie has orchestrated a venue change to the old Natchez Country Club in Franklin, and Webmaster Derry Kehoe has the registration page up on the website.

With double the capacity on tap compared to last year, we're hoping to see lots of new attendees. Several of us visited the club recently and sampled their food offerings, and it's going to be a really great event! For the second year in a row, our speaker will be fellow Musik-Stadt member Robert "Hoot" Gibson, retired NASA astronaut and Shuttle pilot! His talk last year was just riveting.

Here's wishing you all a very special holiday season filled with much love and happiness!

A Nice Morning Drive

Merry Christmas, Happy Holidays, and Happy New Year to everyone in Musik-Stadt! I don't know about you, but I'm looking for a short break to recharge my batteries and give my poor liver time to repair itself.

They say, "better late than never"; and this newsletter is better than never. This is my 36th edition as your humble newsletter editor.

And the only thing I can say about it is, "that's all? I swear I'm on, something like, the 60th or something". Of course, I jest.

As the club slows down with important gatherings with family and friends, so slows down the content of the newsletter. While shorter than normal, we still have great content to leaf through! Enjoy!

A short history of Porsche and Musik~Stadt

John Feuerbacher

Great things start small, and the Porsche Club of America is no different. It began with one man, Bill Sholar. He bought a new 1953 356 Coupe, and, as time passed, he met other Porsches on the road and flashed his lights at them in silent greeting. By late 1954, Sholar was convinced that a more personal meeting would be appropriate with other Porsche owners. Hence the Porsche Club of America was born. The first unofficial PCA meeting was held at the Sholar house on February 8, 1955. The original members of the new Porsche club titled the new organization the Porsche Club of America, but unofficially, they referred to it as “the gripe group.” Word spread, and the 189 Porsche owners who joined the PCA by January 31, 1956, were designated as “charter members.”

MUSIK~STADT

Musik-Stadt Region was organized as a result of a chance meeting between Chuck Elder and John Hudson at a gas station in Brentwood, TN in 1981. About 70 people attended the first organizational meeting in the Board Room of the old Nashville City Bank on Union Street. The major business of that first meeting was selecting the Region’s new name. Music City USA, Cumberland, Harpeth River, Volunteer State and Musik-Stadt were the choices. Musik Stadt was the overwhelming choice. John Hudson had the honor of being elected the Region’s first President and the Region has been fortunate to have many able leaders in the succeeding years. Musik-Stadt was formed for and by Porsche owners who really enjoy driving their cars and the fellowship of like-minded men and women. That is still true today.

Each year EJ Sain Jewelers supports Musik-Stadt by donating a quality timepiece as the top raffle prize at the annual Awards Banquet. We also offer a 10% discount to PCA members at the store.

Our initial meeting in November was such a hit, it would be great to continue with the Porsche & Pizza theme. We have enough members in Nashville and the surrounding areas to make it happen!

That said, finding another pizza-style restaurant in Nashville could be a bit tricky. If you have any ideas or recommendations, I'd love to hear them! Thanks so much!

Stuttgart Market Letter

by David K. Whitlock

November continued the momentum we've seen building in the Porsche auction market, posting a 73% sell-through rate (STR) on 615 cars for a total of $38.7 million in sales. That marks a clear year-over-year improvement over November 2024's 69% STR on 537 units and $36.5 million in dollar volume, while October's outsized $52 million result now looks more like an anomaly driven by sheer volume than a new baseline. The 991 GT2 RS market remained red hot, GT4 RS values continued their gradual softening, bidders began to value 911 GTS Cabriolet Americas, and the defining story of the month was the 993 Turbo market catching fire.

The 993 Turbo market was the clear standout in November. Five examples crossed the block, and four sold above $325,000, a level we simply haven't seen at an online auction all year. One of the more talked-about cars was marketed as a "Turbo S," though it was technically a Japanese-market Turbo equipped with all the right boxes checked, including X50, Turbo S Aero Kit II, and X79 side vents. It sold at a final bid of $350,000. The high water mark for the month was a 12,000-mile example that brought $369,000. The real surprise came from a 30,000-mile Arena Red Metallic car, finished in the always-great "Kills Bugs Fast" hue, which hammered at $340,000. That result was quickly reinforced by a Guards Red example with 39,000 miles selling for $339,993. The 991.2 GT2 RS market continued its impressive run in November with just two cars crossing the block, and both delivering standout results. The first was a 3,300-mile example finished in Racing Yellow and equipped with the Weissach Package and Magnesium wheels. It hammered at $500,003, comfortably clearing prior high comps around $416,000. The real headline, though, was a plain-Jane White over Black car without Porsche's Weissach Package, the only non-Weissach example we've seen all year. Despite that, and even with plenty of low-mileage Weissach cars trading in the $460,000 to $490,000 range, this 939-mile example sold at a final bid of $506,000. When non-Weissach cars are bringing Weissach-plus money, it's a clear signal that demand for the GT2 RS remains exceptionally strong.

The GT4 RS market continued to soften in November, with three examples crossing the block and only one finding a new home. Both no-sales stalled at final bids of $180,000, despite being well-specced cars. One was a 2025 example with 1,200 miles, finished in Racing Yellow with the Weissach Package and carrying a $189,000 MSRP. The other was a 2023 car showing 1,900 miles, also equipped with the Weissach Package, finished in Guards Red with an original sticker of $187,000. The lone sale was a 2023 example with notably higher mileage at 13,000 miles, but it stood apart thanks to both the Weissach Package and the Manthey Racing Package. That car sold at a final bid of $190,000 after failing to sell back in September at $182,000. Manthey kits are still bringing a premium, but clearly not what they once did, as this result represented only about a $22,000 bump over comparable high-mile cars without the kit.

The 911 Carrera GTS Cabriolet America Editions got off to a slow start at auction earlier this year, with most early examples failing to sell and just one finding a home back in August at $182,000. Momentum began to build last month when a 787-mile car sold for $223,000, and November pushed things further. Two examples topped that figure, with a 1,400-mile car hammering at $225,000 followed by a 1,200-mile example that sold for $238,875. After months of hesitation, bidders now appear willing to pay up for this limited-production model, suggesting the market is finally finding its footing.

With just one month left in the year, 2025 has already surpassed last year's total dollar volume and is on pace to do the same on unit count, needing just 245 additional cars to get there while current trends point to at least double that number. The quality of sales has improved as well, with the average sell-through rate for the year now sitting at 72% compared to 68% at this point last year. If December delivers anything close to what we've seen recently, 2025 will go down as a stronger and more consistent year for the Porsche auction market than many expected.
