Musik-Stadt members, happy June! Now it's really driving weather! I can't wait to get back over to western North Carolina for roads like the Cherohala Skyway. I'm guessing that most of our members are familiar with this road, but have you seen that the Hagerty Drivers Club magazine has named the Cherohala Skyway their Road of the Year 2025? Having run it annually for upwards of ten years, sometimes both ways in a single day, I think it's an inspired choice and highly recommend the Skyway to anyone who hasn't been on it. My wife Janet and I have even done it in a Cayenne Diesel! Here's a link to the online article:

Our 2025 Concours
d'Musik-Stadt held at One Eleven

From the Driver's Seat
David Thomas,
President

Motorcars was an enormous success, and an absolute joy to attend, thanks to the tireless efforts of Concours Chair Mike Moody. Mike, we are so grateful for your leadership and hard work. Big thanks to VP Joe Swanson, 111 Motorcars president Jeremy Scates, and everyone else who contributed their valuable help with making the Concours such a success!

We are fortunate indeed to have such a great friend of our club in Jeremy, who provided his over-the-top-beautiful facility, with its indoor location, great vibes, and a passel of beautiful and desirable cars which are stored there. Jeremy has already offered to host us again next year, which I'm very excited about! And darned if I didn't see a Pagani roll by while Joe was laying out the field the day before the Concours.

Big thanks also to Porsche of Nashville for the $500 Service Certificates which they provided!

Our PCA Zone Three representative Rick Daniels will be visiting us for the Porsches & Pizzas (west Nashville) social on Wednesday, June 18th at 6:00 p.m. Rick is a former president of PCA Peach State region and a great guy. I hope to see many of you there for some great food, fun, and fellowship.

Safe travels!

A Nice Morning Drive

So, here we are... later in the month than planned... again. While work took a fifteen minute break from beating me with its strong hammer, life told me that it had next! Getting into a car wreck at the beginning of the month was my punishment for not getting straight to work on this month's newsletter in the first week of the month. While no means a bad wreck (don't worry, it wasn't Cool Papa Bert the Vert that got hit), it was a disruption in my day-to-day that took far longer than it should have. Add to it a few things here and there, and low and behold, it's the summer solstice and not much time to take care of business.

In May we had our Concourse d'Musik-Stadt, our premier activity that brings our the best cars of our club as well the Porsche enthusiast community and businesses that are geared (no pun intended) toward us.

Mike Moody has penned a great "thank you" letter to all involved that I've added to the newsletter. The rain stayed away for May's German Cars and Coffee at the Bavarian Bierhaus which had a spectacular turn out. The weather also cooperated with our club drive to Mt. Pleasant. Don Wirth penned a quick write up with pictures of the event. Coming up, there are great activities for you to round out the month: an event at Podium1 with open sim racing and priority Porsche parking presented by Hagerty. And, Wheels and Whiskey at Nearest Green Distillery. Neither of these are PCA or Musik-Stadt sponsored events, but that doesn't mean we can't have fun!

April 19 Tour of Hickman/Lewis Counties & Lunch at Junkyard Dog

Drive
Captain
Mike Moody,

Thanks to all those who braved the dire weather warnings to join our Club Drive to Mt. Pleasant this past weekend.

Dodging tree branches in the 2-lanes, almost getting attacked by an angry buzzard, and sharing laughs with Club members new and old made for a fun day. Special props go out to the pilots of the cars in Group 1. Y'all kept up the pace behind me (Don) perfectly through areas with frequently-changing speed limits, maintained proper distance between cars, and timed the pit stop on the Trace perfectly with no dilly-dallying so our group exited the rest area just as the cars in Group 2 were about to pull in. Well done!!!

12th Annual Concours d' Musik-Stadt

Saturday May 17, 2025 | 8:00 AM
- 2:00 PM

Drive
Captain
Mike Moody,

The 12th Annual Concours d' Musik-Stadt is in the books, and what a concours it was! Jeremy Scates, President of 111 Motorcars offered up the inside of his facility for our Chili-Cookoff earlier this year, and again for our May Concours, and yes we will be back in September for Oktoberfest. Thanks Jeremy!

I just also offer a big “thank you” to our volunteers who helped make this concours successful, including Joe Swanson, Jim & Kathy Dillard, Erik & Ginny Lund, Norm & Carolyn Follis, Randy Lynch, Michael & Dana Smith, Virginia Bloodworth, Rick Arnemann, Derry Kehoe, Nick Paglia, Neil Lambert, Ryan

Carignan, and so many more. Thanks!

And to our sponsors another big “thank you” for your support, including Porsche of Nashville, Titan Motoring, Uplight Technologies (David Surbrook), Tennessee Downs (Mike Gillespie), Corsair Detailing, Hubcap Heaven, Pirelli Tire, Bavarian Bierhaus, Hagerty, Freedom Tire Guys, and Jeremy & 111 Motorcars! Thanks also to David Thomas for those tickets to the Indy 500 & to Virginia/David Bloodworth for sponsoring Friends Life Community Treat Trucks.

If I missed anyone who made this event so special, I apologize. This was our 12th annual concours that started in 2014 as Concours in the Park, inspired by John Hudson, one of our region founders back in 1982. To be honest, I was doubtful about this event, and was I wrong! Thanks John for pushing me for this event and what a journey it was. See you next year for our 13th Annual Concours d' Musik-Stadt.

Stuttgart Market Letter

by David K. Whitlock

May continued the trend of a steady Porsche market, logging a 71% sell-through rate across 651 cars and generating $42,555,835 in total sales. While those numbers landed just shy of April's totals, they matched May 2024's sell-through rate exactly, while improving on both unit and dollar volume. More notably, May delivered a string of firsts: the debut auction appearance of a 911 Turbo Reimagined by Singer, the first $1 million hammer for a 997 GT3 RS 4.0, and the first 996.1 GT3 to cross the block in the U.S. A strong showing by any metric, with fresh headline sales that continue to push the market forward.

Leading the way was a true unicorn: a 2011 Porsche 911 GT3 RS 4.0 showing just 319 miles from new. Finished in Carrara White and loaded with options like PCCB, front axle lift, Sport Chrono, and the Extended Carbon Package, it previously failed to sell in 2023 at $785,250. This time around, it blew past all recent comps to sell for $1,001,917—the first RS 4.0 to officially break the million-dollar mark at auction. While some Paint-to-Sample cars have quietly traded hands above $1m, this one wasn't PTS—just pristine, rare, and perfectly timed.

Also making waves was the first Classic Turbo Study Reimagined by Singer to hit the auction stage.

Known as “The Sun Valley Commission,” this 1990 911 Turbo crossed the block at Bonhams’ Miami sale, finished in Dirty Oak Green Metallic over an Ivory and Olive interior with Black wood accents. Driven by Chris Harris in Singer’s launch video and showing just 267 miles, it sold for $1,680,000. While that came in below its $1.75m–$2.25m estimate, it was still a strong debut for what will surely be one of the most collectible Singer variants.

Not every first found a home, though. The first 996.1 GT3 to appear at U.S. auction was a Japanese-market 2000 model finished in Biarritz White with fixed-back Recaro buckets and 44,000 km (~27k miles) on the clock. Thoroughly documented and seemingly well-kept, it failed to sell at a final bid of $106,996. With Rest-of-World comps hovering just above $80,000 and U.S. private sales rumored closer to $120k, it’s clear the market is still finding its footing for this increasingly desirable GT car.

After a few strong showings earlier in the year, vintage Porsche race cars slipped back into their usual auction rhythm in May: lots of excitement, no results. The first was a 1967 Porsche 910—chassis 910001—the very first 910 coupe built and a former works car driven by Hans Herrmann and Rudi Lins. Despite a meticulous restoration and deep documentation, it failed to sell at $1,515,151 at Mecum, falling well short of the $2.5m achieved by a less storied example last year. Speculation in the comments about originality may have played a role.

And then there’s the 1959 Porsche 718 RSK center-seat Spyder, which has become something of an auction fixture. One of just four cars that could convert between center and offset seating, it boasts original Wendler bodywork and a Bill Doyle-built four-cam engine. Raced in-period by Christian Goethals, it has a rich history—but also a long list of no-sales. May marked its sixth trip to the block since January 2023, and once again, it failed to meet reserve. For now, it remains stuck in auction limbo.

With big-ticket cars finding new highs and fresh-to-market models making their debut, May served as a reminder that even in a stable market, there's still room for headline-making moments.

Looking ahead, all eyes are turning toward August as early consignments for Monterey are already beginning to surface on the major auction house sites—and they look strong. From rare air-cooled icons to modern hypercars, it's shaping up to be another blockbuster slate. Stay tuned.
