David Thomas,

Greetings, Musik-Stadt members, and Happy Fall, Y'all! Isn't it great to be beyond the incredible late summer heat?

We set a new attendance record for the club's very successful Oktoberfest at 111 Motorcars, and just looking around it was obvious everyone was enjoying themselves. HUGE thanks to our Activities Chair, Valerie Gillespie, and her ever-helpful husband Mike, and her entire team for an outstanding event. It's no wonder that both Valerie and Mike have been Musik-Stadt Enthusiasts of the Year! Also a big thank-you to our very generous host, Jeremy Scates!

If you haven't done so already, please consider registering for the Musik-Stadt Poker Run Sponsored By Porsche of Nashville on Saturday, October 24th. Our awesome Dealer liaison Michael Smith has organized a great charity fundraiser benefiting Monroe Carell Jr. Children's Hospital at Vanderbilt which will be a fun way to enjoy our cooler weather. The route has been chosen for some of the most beautiful countryside in Middle Tennessee, and you can check out the details using the link on our home page!

Norm Follis, our board member at-large, very kindly took on the Chairmanship of the Nominating Committee, as our current board term is nearing its end with elections to be held in December and new board to be installed at the January banquet. He has worked hard to recruit a slate of outstanding candidates for your voting pleasure, with details to be provided soon. Norm, BIG thanks for all your excellent work!

Just saw today on the CARBUZZ web site that Porsche has announced their mid-term plan through 2035 which “puts an end to Porsche’s previous plan to turn most of its lineup into electric vehicles and instead focuses more on ICE models as well as exclusivity. Key to this is the development of a new mid-engine supercar based on Porsche’s own platform which is said to be all-ICE.

Car and Driver reported that the 718 Boxster EV “will finally arrive in 2027.” They said the car will have its battery behind the seats instead of under the floor, so C&D said right in the article title that “Riding in Porsche’s Upcoming 718 Boxster EV feels shockingly familiar.” C&D quoted Porsche as saying the mid-mounted battery allowed them to maintain the “signature balance, agility, and precision” of their gas sports car.”

Enjoy those P Cars and be safe out there!

Here we go again! Between audits and vacations I'm about runnin' on empty as par for the course. The past month saw Nashville have the unique opportunity to host a Mecum Auction. I consider auctions of this caliber along the lines of what The Tubes sang about back in the early '80's. And while you can find a real beauty, there are a few "red flag" cars there as well. The thing about spectacles (and I do mean that literally) like this is that there is rarely a deal to be found. Car after car I saw go under the hammer and when I was able to look at them closer, either off to the side or under the tent, I wondered if the buyer got to see the car up close or if they were just blinded by the lights of the "big show". I got to see a few cars that "the bid" went on and I thought to myself after looking at the car afterward, that I would have taken that money and ran.

But, the real winners, other than the Mecum Auction team, were us; the lovers, the dreamers, and me!

Tour of the Porsche Museum - Stuttgart, Germany

Guest Column

Lisa and Paul Ebbert

Lisa and I were in France through the month of September. While there, we jumped over to Stuttgart for a couple days and had the opportunity to tour the Porsche Museum, and also go on a factory tour (scheduled the tour 7 months in advance). We would highly recommend it to any members who have the opportunity to go to Stuttgart. We also saw the Mercedes museum, which we hate to admit, is much larger and nicer than the Porsche museum, but we don't have the personal connection to Mercedes that we have to Porsche. We recommend it too. If you time it right, the Cannstatter Volksfest (Bier Festival/Octoberfest) is a good stop too.

Stuttgart Market Letter

by David K. Whitlock

Coming off a strong August, the Porsche market felt noticeably softer in September. While unit volume actually increased to 766 cars and dollar volume remained strong at $56,513,890, the sell-through rate slipped to 72%, down from 73% in August and 75% in September of last year. That three-point year-over-year decline was the largest we've seen so far in 2026. The numbers certainly weren't bad, especially considering dollar volume was up more than $12m and 110 additional Porsches crossed the block compared to September 2025, but bidders appeared to be a little more selective with their money.

The 991 and 992 market was dominated by the GT2 RS, with eight examples crossing the block. Coming off the million-dollar sale we saw at the end of July, it appears sellers decided it was time to get theirs to market. Topping the bunch was a non-Weissach Package 2019 911 GT2 RS with just 237 miles that came finished in Paint-to-Sample Signal Yellow and sold for an impressive $850,000. We also saw a pair of 2023 911 Sport Classics sell for $700,000 each after not seeing one sell since June. One came finished in the standard Sport Gray Metallic and showed just 120 miles, while the other had 842 miles but came finished in Paint-to-Sample Azzurro Thetys Metallic. If I were making the choice, I think I would have taken the miles. Azzurro Thetys looked fantastic on the Sport Classic.

996s had a stellar month, posting a 79% sell-through rate and some solid results. Topping the market was a Black on Black 2001 911 GT2 Clubsport that sold for $451,000, while a pair of 996.2 GT3s continued the model's recent move upward with sales of $208,000 and $134,000. On the 997 front, GT3 RSs brought big bids but failed to find new homes, including a Paint-to-Sample 2011 911 GT3 RS that failed to sell at $725,000, which would have been a new twelve-month high by $100,000. 997 Turbos kept their momentum going, with three Blue examples selling for more than $200,000, led by an Ice Blue Metallic 2011 911 Turbo Coupe with 23,000 miles and a six-speed manual transmission at $320,000.

One of my predictions for 2026, which I made at PCA's Tech Tactics back in February, was that we'd see the Boxster and Cayman market rise with the axe of the ICE-powered 718s. While it took a few months to come to fruition, we definitely saw signs of it in September. Excluding the 718, Boxsters and Caymans posted an impressive 89% sell-through rate, while average prices jumped $5,632 month over month. A 3,500-mile 981 GT4 set a new twelve-month high at $142,000, while a 13,800-mile 981 Boxster Spyder did the same at $125,981. Even the 718 GT market showed some life. A 2023 718 Cayman GT4 RS Weissach sold for a twelve-month high of $221,000, while a Paint-to-Sample Gulf Orange 2024 718 Spyder RS with 1,600 miles brought a super-strong $265,100.

Moving back a few generations, 964s and 993s finished September with 49 examples crossing the block for a 69.4% sell-through rate. Topping the group was a Guards Red 1997 911 Turbo S with 24,000 miles that brought $852,000, but what caught my attention was the lack of 993 Carrera 4S examples coming to market. After seeing nine in August, just three crossed the block in September. Non-Turbo 964s had a harder time, with a sell-through rate just over 60%, although one high-mileage Widebody bucked the trend. Showing 172,000 miles, a 1994 911 Carrera 4 Coupe 5-speed Widebody sold for an impressive $201,964 following an extensive refurbishment completed in 2025. Looking at the G-Body and 930 market, the top of the list was filled with the usual Turbos and Speedsters, led by a 14,000-mile 1986 911 Turbo Coupe finished in Meteor Metallic over Black that sold for $311,000. We also saw a number of regular Carrera 3.2s sneak past $100,000 along with a fantastic Caramel Brown over Tan 1981 911SC Coupe with 61,000 miles and documentation dating back to new that brought $107,500.

Topping the Transaxle, 912, and 914 market was Porsche Las Vegas' 2025 Classic Restoration Challenge car, fitting given that Porsche Area East's 2026 Classic Restoration Challenge was held at the Audrain Concours this past weekend. The 1988 944 Turbo S, which was crowned the Preservation National Champion last year, finished in Guards Red over Black with 75,000 miles and sold for $95,000, setting a new twelve-month high by more than $35,000. The 914/6 market, on the other hand, continued to soften. Two examples crossed the block with just one selling and both attracting bids below $80,000. The lone sale was a Metallic Blue 1970 914/6 at $73,000, still a fraction of the prices we were seeing for these cars just a few years ago.

The 356 market was more of the same, with just 57.9% of the 19 cars on offer finding new homes. Although the sell-through rate remained low, we still saw some impressive bids, led by $945,000 for a 1959 356A Carrera 1600 GT Speedster. Purchased new through Max Hoffman, the car was a regional SCCA champion in 1969 and later earned Best in Class at the 2021 Greenwich Concours d'Elegance.

Unfortunately, even with a bid just shy of $1 million, it landed in the no-sale column. The Classic 911 market was also a bit sluggish, managing a 60% sell-through rate from just 10 examples. Topping that group was a 1970 911S Coupe 5-speed finished in Metallic Blue over Beige leatherette with corduroy inserts. After being removed from auction in August due to an error with its Porsche Classic Technical Certificate, it returned with the certificate corrected and sold for an impressive $172,500.

September may have felt softer, but there were still plenty of strong individual results, especially for the best examples in each market. October should give us a good look at whether September's drop in sell-through rate was just a post-summer slowdown or something worth keeping an eye on. As far as live auctions go, the only sale on the docket is Broad Arrow's Audrain Concours Auction, along with our usual slate of online sales. We'll see if bidders remain selective or if things pick back up as we head into the final quarter of the year.

Swanson Update

Sponsorship - We should seek annual sponsorships. Perhaps, we form a working group to identify sponsors and develop the tiers and potential sponsors. (No action taken)

Refund Policy for events, Oktoberfest settled, will review for concours next year. (No action taken)

Concours

Scope? Venue? Jeremy has offered 111 to us until we say no. Offered his lounge and facility for social outreach. He knows Porsche members and non-members that have special cars, but don't get involved with the club due to perception. He feels we could turn our concours into middle TN's largest Porsche show. We can use his entire campus inside as before plus outside.

Develop an information page for out of region participants (website).

We had two classes with no entries and two others with bare minimum. We need a membership registry so we know what cars members have. Then we can target specific cars for concours to ensure model representation. (Website) 111 has offered to accept early arrivals and offer detailing services.

Michael Smith raised concern about relationship with PON

Matter of permitting replicas, we need to finalize a policy. This year my decision was to permit them for display, but not eligible for judging.

Prior to our event we had suggestions to reach out to Non-PCA clubs. We can do that if we are prepared. Major concern for increasing the size of the event is judging. We were better prepared this year, but had several judges no show ..

Concours early bird registration. Encourage early registration. Minimal change to income, but will help with shirt ordering. Discuss t-shirts.

Membership Outreach

Jeremy offered his lounge and facility for social outreach. He knows Porsche members and non-members that have special cars, but don't get involved with the club due to perception. 111 has offered to collaborate on potential member outreach. We can use 111's showroom and lounge. Jeremy would connect non-PCA Porsche owners with us.

Mike Moody moved we follow the guides from PCA as to replica cars. Vin # and Porsche engine is a must to be judged. Joe Swanson seconded. Passed unanimously.

Treasurer – Jim Dillard

Dealer Liaison – Michael Smith

August 29th Poker Run co-sponsored with Porsche of Nashville

Mike Moody will get an insurance certificate. $100 entry fee because the money is a fundraiser for Vanderbilt Children's Hospital. Will need additional volunteers. Looking at a place to end that would have food for purchase.

Paws and Porsches Oct. 10. Not a true Porsche Club event.

November food drive and New Member's Social.

Michael will present the sponsorship requests to Porsche of Nashville in August.

Michael will be turning over the reins to a new person after the new year.

We'd like to allocate $500 of club money for the Poker Run. David Thomas made the motion with Dale Sullivan seconding. Passed unanimously.

Drives – Mike Moody

All drives have been set through the end of the month. Usually around 30 cars which is the max.

Social Media – Nick Paglia

Updates - using a free plan for software will not need the $60 allocated for such.

At Large – Norm Follis

Social coming up - August 20th paddle boat dinner cruise. Nick has a calendar indicating how we will advertise this event.

Asked for recommendations of a pizza restaurant in the Brentwood / Franklin area. Are having a hard time getting people involved in the Mellow Mushroom event.

Virginia suggested adding a calendar invite for the Wednesday night dinners. Nick will look into this.

Activities – Valerie Gillespie

Absent -

We chose not to do the Chili cookoff with the Franklin Fire Department. Suggested we move the date to a colder month.

Via email:

Derry has gotten the link/portal set up and ready for folks to start purchasing tickets for Oktoberfest 2026. I plan to push out to the German Car Clubs starting 7.13.26, similarly, Derry, Nick and Dave-Lori will be posting on MSC portal, weekly email blasts and the newsletter. Net budget expense to club is $4800 ($4400 in 2025). I have gone line by line from what we spent last year vs forecast for this, and, have increased the few categories that we needed to adjust to accommodate consumption, primarily, I doubled the wine purchase. I have gone "high" to present worst case based on anticipated attendees.

In 2025, we had a total of 175 attendees. We are targeting the same level of attendance for 2026. To kick off a strong early sign up, I want to offer 'early bird' discount; buy your tickets by 8.31.26, save $5/ticket. If I assume 80 of the ticket sales get the $5/ticket discount, I am still under my total net budget by approximately $400. Any objection to having Derry put into place an early bird price point of $5/ticket discount for purchases made by 8.31.26? I have checked with Derry, he has confirmed he can easily do on the portal.

No objection to an early bird discount.

Historian – Virginia Bloodworth

Virginia asked for clarification of her position. Is the Historian a voting member of the executive board? David indicated he'd research this.

Asked for help collecting information.
